Chants de Vieilles is almost here...

(Calixa-Lavallée, 9 September 2009) - As summer draws to an end, Chants de Vieilles is back into its grooves, setting up, year after year, a place where people can get together and exchange on a human, feel-good scale.

The 6th edition of Chants de Vieilles (September 11-13) will be full of emerging talents and pleasing sounds. Over 50 artists from various regions of Quebec, the US, and France will be joining us, including several world-renowned acts like Le Vent du Nord, Nightingale, Gilles Chabenat, and a very special line-up of Ad Vielle Que Pourra, who will be making its live comeback at our event!

Don't miss this opportunity to experience something unique in the fields of the beautiful town of Calixa-Lavallée, on the south bank of Montreal.

There's fun to be had for people of all ages and persuasions!
